(54) Title: SYNTHETIC SINGLE DOMAIN POLYPEPTIDES MIMICKING APOLIPOPROTEIN E AND METHODS OF USE

(57) Abstract: The present invention is directed to a synthetic apolipoprotein-E mimicking polypeptide consisting of a single domain. The invention is also directed to nucleic acid encoding the polypeptide, vectors including the nucleic acid, antibodies specific for the polypeptide, and compositions comprising the same and methods of using the same.

Special categories of cited documents:

"A" documents defining the general state of the art which is not expected to be of particular relevance	"T" later document published after the international filing date or priority date and not in conflict with the application but cited to understand the principle or theory underlying the invention
"H" earlier application or patent published on or after the international filing date	"X" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered novel or cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is taken alone
"U" document which may throw doubts on priority claim(s) or which is cited to establish the publication date of another citation or other special reason (as specified)	"Y" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is combined with one or more other such documents, such combination being obvious to a person skilled in the art
"O" document referring to an oral disclosure, use, exhibition or other means	"A" document member of the same patent family
"P" document published prior to the international filing date but later than the priority date claimed

INTERNATIONAL SEARCH REPORT

International Application No.

PCT/US03/36268

Box I Observations where certain claims were found unsearchable (Continuation of Item 1 of first sheet)

This international report has not been established in respect of certain claims under Article 17(2)(a) for the following reasons:

1. ☐ Claim Nos.:
because they relate to subject matter not required to be searched by this Authority, namely:
2. ☐ Claim Nos.:
because they relate to parts of the international application that do not comply with the prescribed requirements to such an extent that no meaningful international search can be carried out, specifically:
3. ☐ Claim Nos.:
because they are dependent claims and are not drafted in accordance with the second and third sentences of Rule 6.4(a).

Box II Observations where unity of invention is lacking (Continuation of Item 2 of first sheet)

This International Searching Authority found multiple inventions in this international application, as follows.
See PCT FORM 206 mailed August 8, 2005

1. ☐ As all required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers all searchable claims.
2. ☐ As all searchable claims could be searched without effort justifying an additional fee, this Authority did not invite payment of any additional fee.
3. ☐ As only some of the required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers only those claims for which fees were paid, specifically claims Nos.:
4. ☒ No required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant. Consequently, this international search report is restricted to the invention first mentioned in the claims; it is covered by claims Nos.: 1-8, 14-17, 19, 27 and 31-34

Remark on Protest

The additional search fees were accompanied by the applicant's protest.

No protest accompanied the payment of additional search fees.

Ref.: Your payment of 02.08.05

We wish to draw you attention to the following:

Following the Decision of the administrative Council of 09.12.04 (OJ EPO 1/2005, 5) the amounts due for the European search fee and examination fee have been amended with effect from 01.07.05.

The new amounts of the European and supplementary European search fee and of the examination fee apply to European patent applications and Euro-PCT applications derived from international applications filed on or after 01.07.05.

Since the present application was filed before 01.07.05, the old amounts apply.

In addition the international search report has not been published yet, therefore the designation and examination fee were not due on entering the European phase. With regard to your payment of 02.08.05 any overpaid amount will be refunded.
